Dear Counselor:

Admission to the Presidential Leadership Class (PLC) is one of East Central University's top honors. The program is focused around leadership development at the personal, organizational, and community levels. PLC scholars develop skills through weekly meetings, campus and community service projects and lecture series.

East Central University accepts applicants who are skilled in the following areas: Intellectual curiosity, leadership potential, commitment outside him/herself, and unique contribution. Thank you for taking the time to complete the questions below and to write a letter on your student's behalf. These letters help us best understand the student's potential for success in our PLC program. Please remember that our application deadline is March 1, 2012 and we must have all materials in our office by that day. Please submit to:
