

ECU CAMPUS UPDATES

ECU recently hosted an event to discuss the future of the university during the construction of the Dan Hays STEM Center and plans for more renovations, improvements, and advancements going forward.

ECU Forward gave those in attendance an opportunity to glimpse the campaigns three primary focuses, which include; faculty and staff support, student scholarship and experience support, and campus improvements such as housing expansions, renovations for fine arts facilities, upgrades for athletic facilities and the construction of the Dan Hays STEM Center.

The Clinic, ECU partner on student health care

Beginning in the Spring 2025 semester, The Clinic now serves ECU students at its new location inside the Memorial Student Union building on the ECU campus.

The Clinic's ECU office is staffed by Kyndel Dillard, PA-C, a primary care provider and graduate of the university.

Chickasaw Appreciation Night

ECU Athletics recently hosted Chickasaw Appreciation Night to honor the long-standing partnership between ECU and the Chickasaw Nation.

Chickasaw Nation Governor Bill Anoatubby was in attendance, along with many members of the Chickasaw Nation community.

Nursing White Coat Ceremony

ECU Nursing students ended January with the Spring 2025 White Coat Ceremony inside the Ataloo Theatre. 55 students received the honor with friends, family, and ECU faculty and administration in attendance.

The Money Game

The ECU NASNTI REACHE program recently hosted The Money Game event with guest speaker, Eric Smith, who is recognized as a nationally renowned financial coach. The event served as an educational money-saving lesson for students.

Smash Event

ECU Esports hosted a Welcome Week Event for students across campus during the second week of the semester. Dozens of students were in attendance as they competed in Super Smash Brothers for a chance to win prizes provided by Esports.

Ohlmer's exhibit is currently available for viewing inside the Pogue Gallery, with an artist talk and reception scheduled for Feb. 25 at 4 p.m.

According to Ohlmer's artist statement, "I have always felt as though I existed between two realities. This feeling has manifested itself into hours of looking at a mirror and deep self-examination. However, the person that I see seems unfamiliar to the person that exists in the real world. As an artist, I am interested in the way one simultaneously exists in two spaces."
