Professors save students $140K in textbook costs

Faculty members at ECU are leading Oklahoma in providing no-cost instructional materials to students through Open Educational Resources, or OERs.

OERs are teaching, learning and research materials that are freely available to access, revise, and adapt under an open license.

For more information, visit ecok.edu/news.

ECU has been named the recipient of a $3,615 grant from Oklahoma Humanities. The grant will be used to assist in funding a presentation of the Killing the Negative exhibit on the ECU campus in the spring.

For more information, visit ecok.edu/news.

ECU recently hosted their 104th Interscholastic Meet. Students from 35 different high schools took part in more than 20 available test options, ranging from Shakespeare to Accounting.
