

CAMPUS UPDATE

May 2022

A note from the president...

Congratulations to all of our employees and students on all of the awards and scholarships that have been bestowed over this last month. Hard work definitely pays off, and we are so pleased for the opportunity to celebrate our successes.

Across the campus, hundreds of students were awarded scholarships and recognized from their various colleges and departments. At the Employee Recognition Event, well over 100 employees were recognized for their service to ECU and their embodiment of ECU's core values. Three retiring professors were granted Professor Emeritus as they look forward to their next chapter in life.

ECU is also recognizing and celebrating Distinguished Awards from 2020, 2021, and 2022.

Six of ECU's top students became finalists for the George Nigh Award. Recently, they met with Gov. Nigh at a reception in their honor. The George Nigh Award winner will be announced at the Spring 2022 Commencement Ceremony on Saturday, May 7, in the Kerr Activities Center.

We hope you join us in celebrating our 2022 ECU graduates' achievements and the bright future that awaits them.

Spring Commencement 2022

ECU's 2022 Spring Commencement will be held Saturday, May 7 at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. in Kerr Activities Center. We will honor 116 candidates for Master's degrees, and 371 candidates for Bachelor's degrees.

Chancellor Allison D. Garrett is slated as keynote speaker at ECU's commencement ceremony at 10 a.m. Garrett was named chancellor of the Oklahoma State System of Higher Education in 2021, becoming the first woman to hold the position.

Distinguished ECU Alumni Dewey McClain is set to speak at the 2 p.m. ceremony. McClain earned a B.A. in History in 1976 from ECU, where he played football before his professional gridiron career. He played in the NFL with the Atlanta Falcons for five years and then with the United States Football League with the Oakland Invaders and Oklahoma Outlaws. McClain is currently a State Representative in Georgia, a voice for his constituents in Gwinnett County.
