McCullough named ECU's fulltime head coach

Kris McCullough's title at ECU no longer includes "interim." He carried the title since March, taking the Tigers to a 6-3 winning season so far, including the first 6-game winning streak since 1984. A huge feat while also being the youngest head coach in college football.

"Coach McCullough has earned the title of head football coach at ECU," President Wendell Godwin said. "He has been instrumental in building a culture of excellence on and off the field. When you consider what Coach McCullough has achieved in his college coaching career, it is quite impressive."

"This is home to my wife and I. We absolutely love it here. We love this University. We look forward to being here for years to come," McCullough said. His wife, Hannah, is pictured with him at left. For more, visit ecok.edu/news.

The Marvin Stokes Lecture was held Oct. 24. Oklahoma Teacher of the Year Rebecka Peterson and RUSO Regent Connie Reilly spoke at the event. More than $100,000 in education scholarships were awarded.

U.S. Congressman Tom Cole visited ECU and met with officials. He also toured the School of Nursing to see the training tools available.

Classic Meets Cool: Pianist to take the stage at ECU

Classic meets cool when pianist Barron Ryan takes the stage at the Ataloa Theatre 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 1.

Ryan, who is from Tulsa, takes classic piano music and merges them with a funk-, pop- or country-inspired sound.

The son of two musicians, his love for music started at a young age. He grew up in a house filled with the sounds of artists ranging from Mozart to Michael Jackson, so he’s never been one to draw from a set influence. He combines all genres into a musical adventure.

Tickets are available at ecok.edu/boxoffice and range from $10-$25.

For more information, contact the Hallie Brown Ford Fine Arts Center Box Office at boxoffice@ecok.edu or 580-559-5751.
