6. Medical Treatment Authorization

By submitting this application and participating in any program which results from it, you agree that in the event of any illness or injury to you while so participating, you have and do authorize any official representative of the institution in which you are enrolled, or Swansea University, to secure medical treatment on your behalf, including surgery and the administration of an anesthetic, and accept all financial responsibility for such treatment. Please note that in order to participate in the Brad Henry International Scholars program, you must initial this authorization or your application will be considered ineligible.

I have read and understood the above requirements (Please initial)______

7. Required Insurance

You are required to have appropriate health and accident insurance coverage during your participation in any program which results from this application. Required coverage includes basic medical, accidental death and dismemberment, emergency evacuation and repatriation of remains. Such insurance is readily available commercially, may be obtained on-line and generally offers coverage for a specific period of time, which should include both your participation in this program and any international travel before or after the program. You will be required to submit proof of insurance as a condition of participation in the program.

I have read and understood the above requirements (Please initial)______

8. Conditions of Participation

By making this application for the Brad Henry International Scholars program, you agree to participate fully and completely in all aspects of the program, including orientation, instruction, internship work assignments, excursions and evaluation. Among the conditions of participation, without limitation, are the following:

Personal Conduct: As a Brad Henry International Scholar, you will be a representative of the U.S., the State of Oklahoma, and the university in which you are enrolled and you therefore agree to conduct yourself in a manner which will reflect favorably on these entities, your family and yourself. Swansea University and the university in which you are enrolled may establish rules of conduct appropriate for the operation of the program by which you must abide both in the United States and while abroad. Should you violate these rules, or the laws of the host country, demonstrate disruptive behavior, or through your conduct bring the program or its participants into disrepute or legal or physical jeopardy, you may be removed from the program and/or face other sanctions. If you are dismissed from the program, you may lose all academic credit and will be responsible for any continuing or additional costs which arise as a result of the dismissal.

I have read and understood the above requirements (Please initial)

Financial Responsibility and Withdrawal: The OSRHE will transfer the full amount of any grant awarded pursuant to this program to the university in which you are enrolled, and your university will pay to Swansea University the full agreed amount of any charge for tuition, housing and other program costs. You will be provided with an accounting showing the amount of the grant and the amount of any payment made on your behalf. Your university will pay to you any balance remaining from the original grant proceeds to defray your costs of participation. You will be responsible for any and all other expenses and costs of participation in the program, including, without limitation, transportation and travel expenses, required insurance, food, passport and required visas, and any miscellaneous personal expenses.

I have read and understood the above requirements (Please initial)______

If you choose to withdraw from the program for any reason, you must provide adequate actual notice of your intention to the Program Coordinator. If you withdraw for non-medical reasons, or if you are removed for disciplinary reasons, you will be responsible for return of any grant proceeds paid to you. If you withdraw for medical reasons, you must provide certification from a medical doctor that your withdrawal was a medical necessity. If your medical withdrawal occurs prior to departure from the U.S., you will be responsible for return of any portion of the grant proceeds not expended, or for which a refund can be obtained. If your medical withdrawal occurs after departure from the U.S., you will be excused from repayment.

I have read and understood the above requirements (Please initial)

Independent Travel: Should you elect to travel independently before, during or after any program in which you participate, you acknowledge and agree that such travel shall be at your own expense, and that you further agree to inform the designated representative of your university or Swansea University, in writing, of your travel plans. This includes the pre-sessional program at Swansea University. You further acknowledge and agree that neither the OSRHE, your university nor Swansea University is responsible for you while you are traveling independently.
