7.1.4 Section 4: Procedures for Appointment to the Graduate Faculty

1. Regular Graduate Faculty and Associate Graduate Faculty appointment procedures
  1. By January 15 each year, the School of Graduate Studies will notify the program department chairs and deans of faculty who are eligible to apply for RGF or AGF status or are up for renewal.
  2. After the department chair has notified the faculty member of his/her eligibility, it is the individual faculty member's responsibility to complete the application form and return it and a current vita to the department chair by March 1.
  3. If the department chair and the dean recommend the appointment, the application and vita will be forwarded to the Graduate Committee by April 1.
  4. If a majority of the Graduate Committee approves the appointment, the application will be forwarded to the dean of the School of Graduate Studies.
  5. Administrative review and approval will proceed from the dean of the School of Graduate Studies to the vice president of academic affairs.
  6. The application may be disallowed at any point in the appointment procedure and returned to the School of Graduate Studies. The dean of the School of Graduate Studies will notify the faculty member and discuss the decision with the faculty member.
  7. The faculty member may appeal a disapproved application by submitting a written request containing justifications for a review to the graduate dean. The graduate dean will appoint a three-member review committee (1 from the Graduate Committee, 1 RGF member, and 1 AGF member). The Graduate Committee member will chair the review committee, which will investigate the request in whatever manner the committee deems necessary and submit a written recommendation to the graduate dean within thirty days of receipt of the review request. The graduate dean will submit the review committee's findings to the Graduate Committee and the faculty member.

2. Provisional Graduate Faculty Appointment Procedures
  1. If concurring with the department chair's recommendation for PGF appointment, the program dean will forward the PGF appointment application and vita to the dean of the School of Graduate Studies for final action; the graduate dean will approve or disapprove the recommendation; the appointment does not require Graduate Committee or other administrative action.
  2. All PGF appointments must be completed before the semester in which the class is taught.
  3. The graduate dean will notify the department and applicant of the decision.
  4. In extenuating circumstances, the Dean of the college or school will confer with the Dean of Graduate Studies to determine if the candidate qualifies for provisional status with formal application and approval to follow.
