Tiger Orientation

EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW TO START SUCCESSFULLY

'22-'23

Welcome

Dear Students,

We are excited to have you join the ECU Tiger family!

You're starting university life and that can be exciting, and sometimes a little scary, but know that you have folks committed to your success. You are starting a journey that will help you understand the world and allow you to make your place in it.

To help you as you embark on your journey, I invite you to take advantage of everything this amazing place has to offer. You have expert guides including your first-year advisors, peer mentors, and residence assistants that can't wait to meet you and help you get started.

You also have the opportunity to participate in a variety of programs and experiences when you first arrive. Once you move in to your residence hall, you will spend the weekend getting to know ECU and find out how you can be involved in campus life. Students who are engaged in the campus, both the learning and the social activities, are the most successful.

Remember, your journey starts with one step, and you have already taken it by being here today for orientation. Making sure you step into the classroom each and every day will keep you on the path to completion.

I welcome you to your first year at East Central University! I can't say it enough — I am thrilled that you are here! Please reach out to me if you need anything.

You are joining a group of people committed to your success. It is our hope that you learn more about the world and about yourself while you are here.

Again, welcome to the Tiger family.

Yours,
Jeffery Gibson, PhD
Interim ECU President

Financial Aid FAQ

Q: How much financial aid can I qualify for?

A: Eligibility for federal student aid depends on the results of the FAFSA application. A student may qualify for a Pell Grant, student loan(s) and/or employment opportunities through College Work Study.

Q: How do I qualify for financial aid?

A: It all begins with the FAFSA application. Once the FAFSA is completed, you will be notified by the ECU Financial Aid Office of the different types of federal aid that you may be eligible for.

Q: What are the important dates and deadlines for financial aid?

A: The FAFSA application is available beginning Oct. 1 each year. Some types of federal and state aid are time sensitive. We encourage all students to complete the FAFSA as soon as possible.

Information on Financial Aid is available.

Q: What is ECU's code for the FAFSA form?

A: When prompted on the FAFSA form, use code 003154 For ECU.

Q: How often do I need to complete the FAFSA form?

A: FAFSA must be completed annually.

Q: My parents didn't claim me when they filed taxes. Does this make me independent for financial aid purposes?

A: No. Dependency is based upon Step Three of the FAFSA application. You must be able to answer "Yes" to any one of the FAFSA questions 45-57 to be classified as an independent student.

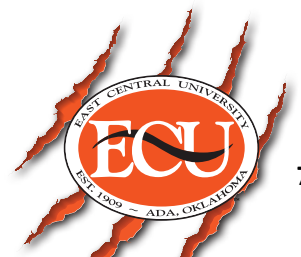

Q: Why was I offered loans, but no grants?

A: Federal and state grants are contingent upon the EFC (Expected Family Contribution) results from the FAFSA. Students with a higher EFC may not qualify for grants, but will qualify for loans.

Q: Can I enroll part-time and still receive financial aid?

A: Federal Aid may be available to part-time students. To receive student loans, a student must be enrolled at least half time -- six hours or more for undergraduate students, and four hours or more for graduates.

Student employment on campus

Working on campus is a great way to earn income that works around your class schedule. Simply activate your Handshake Account at ecok.joinhandshake.com and log in using your ECU student email and set your password. Be sure to enter your entire email address. For example, if you were Roary Tiger, your email would look like: roaetig@email.ecok.edu. You can also download the free app on Android or iPhone. Search "East Central University On-Campus Employment" as the employer and search jobs. ECU pays student employees through Direct Deposit. Please bring a voided check or a letter from your bank that includes your account number and the bank's routing number.

financial literacy for you @ ECU (FLY)

Financial Literacy for You @ ECU is a program designed to help manage money as a college student. Financial literacy is understanding how money works: how you make, manage, and invest your money wisely. Knowing the basics of managing your money will help you become self-sufficient and achieve financial stability.

Academic FAQ

Q: What can I major in at ECU?

A: ECU offers more than 70 degree options. No matter your career choice, you can get there from here. Visit ECU's Find a Major to explore options.

Q: Do I have an Academic Advisor?

A: Yes! An advisor from the Academic Success Center will work with you during your orientation and first enrollment to get you started in your course of study. A faculty member from your major will serve as your advisor after that. You can locate your advisor's name on the first page of your degree audit, and in the advising menu from the Colleague Self-Service for Student Planning.

Q: How do I make sure I receive my earned AP credit?

A: Please have your AP scores sent directly from the College Board to ECU (Institution Code: 3394). If you have an AP course that is not on the approved list and have the score required, the Office of Admissions and Records will apply the qualifying credits and equivalencies to your transcript.

Q: How do I change my schedule?

A: Once you have enrolled, you will be able to change your schedule as long as the add/drop period is open using Colleague Self Service. You should continue to work with your advisor/ASC to make schedule changes.

Q: How do I make sure I graduate on time?

A: Each major has a four-year plan of study with suggested courses for each semester. This plan and working with your advisor will help you stay on track to graduate on time.

Q: How do I get academic help if I need it?

A: Professors are always glad to answer questions and assist students. Be sure to speak with your instructor or advisor. If you need help with a specific class, or tutoring, the Academic Success Center, Writing Center and Tutoring Zone are available.

Information release

Q: Can my parents see my grades?

A: The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) protects the privacy of students' education records once they reach the age of 18 or attend a postsecondary institution. This law protects the rights of students to review their own records and to challenge any content of the record.

To grant someone else access to your records, fill out the information release for each office. For FERPA questions, contact the Office of Records at registrar@ecok.edu.

Life on campus

One of the best ways to become involved in student life is for students to reside in the residence halls. Research has shown that students who live on campus persist and graduate at higher rates, are more satisfied with their personal college experience, and show more development than students who do not live on campus.

In light of the benefits of on-campus living, all freshmen students under the age of 21 shall live on campus for their first academic year. Summer sessions are excluded. For exclusions to this policy and more information, see the Housing Brochure and website.

Campus safety

ECU prides itself in providing residents a safe place to live while attending school. Each building has an assigned Residence Director (RD) which is a full-time staff member that manages the day to day operations of their residence hall. Additionally, each building holds a number of Resident Assistants (RAs) to help with the facilitation, safety, and security of the residence halls. Residents may find assistance 24 hours a day, whether it is an RD or an on-call RA. On-call numbers are posted at the front desk of each building. Be sure to save the numbers in your phone.

For any other questions, please call the Office of Housing and Residence Life at 580-559-5602.

Any individual experiencing or aware of an emergency situation that is threatening to the health and/or safety of any student should immediately call 911 or campus police at 580-559-5555. The RA on-call number for each building is listed below:

Pontotoc Hall - 580-399-9236

Briles Hall / Chokka-Chaffa' Hall - 580-399-9242

Pesagi Hall / Tiger Commons / Stadium Apartments - 580-399-9235

Sign up for housing

Sign up for housing anytime before the start of Fall 2022

Fall Application: Please note housing application is completely online. Fall room placements are assigned by the Housing coordinator based on the availability of beds/rooms. Housing staff will contact you with your room placement through your ECU student email. The Fall '22 check-in is Aug. 12, 2022 from 9 a.m. - noon.

How to sign up:

1. Using your preferred browser, go to ecok.edu/housing
2. Scroll down and click on the HOUSING APPLICATION tab.
3. Under "Recommended Actions," click on Apply for Housing.
4. Use the drop-down options to select your classification and START the process.

Life on campus FAQ

Q: When will I get my housing assignment?

A: Once the housing application is complete, you will be notified through your ECU email when it is time to return to the application, select a room, choose a meal plan and sign the housing contract.

Q: What are my dining options?

A: ECU offers various meal plans for students living on campus. Taff Cafeteria and the University Center Snack Bar are available where residents can use meal plan credits.

Q: What amenities are available in my residence hall?

A: All halls have access to coin-free laundry facilities, WIFI is available in each room of the residence. Vending machines, and a front desk to assist are in each hall and can provide the use of games and recreational equipment. Find the Housing Brochure featuring each residence hall for more information.

ECU Bookstore

The ECU Campus Bookstore provides classroom textbooks, computers, materials and other academic resources along with fan gear, gifts and general supplies. The bookstore is inside the Memorial Student Union and is open Monday through Friday 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

ECU Bookstore
580-332-6347
bookstore@ecok.edu

You can order your textbooks online through the ECU Campus Bookstore and check prices and requirements online.

Plan to order 1-2 weeks in advance. Orders must be shipped to a physical address, no P.O. boxes. Only order books for the upcoming semester. Textbooks are subject to change each term. When purchasing course materials, you will have the choice of new, used, or rental, and also in digital or print formats. Some courses may also require an access code for online activities that may either be bundled together or purchased separately.

Upon enrollment every student is automatically approved to charge up to $500 to their student account at the bookstore on books and supplies.

Whatever is spent will be reflected on your bill from the Bursar's office.

To utilize, choose "Student Account" as your payment option during checkout.

Life on campus get involved

East Central University has 65 different Student Organizations looking for new members. From academic and major-specific organizations, to religious, service, or special interest groups. The Office of Campus Involvement, located in the University Center, first floor, is home to the Campus Activities Board, Greek Life, and Student Organizations.

Be sure to stop by the Office of Campus Involvement or email cab@ecok.edu with any questions or comments and get connected!

Greek Life: Greek life can provide you with opportunities to further your career, increase your personal and professional network, and help you develop inter- and intrapersonal skills all while hanging out with like-minded men and women that feel like family.

Student Government Association: All students are members of the SGA upon enrollment. Officers and Senators are elected on a yearly basis. The SGA exists to represent the interest of the students by serving as a liaison between the university and community. We encourage you all to meet with your Senators through our SGA town halls as well as through our weekly SGA meetings.

Clubs and Organizations:

The Office of Campus Involvement provides services, leadership development resources, and recognition programs for 65 student organizations. Student organizations connect students with a stronger sense of community, develop group building and leadership skills, and serve as an outlet for self-expression and sharing of talents. The office provides assistance with student organization recognition, organization recruitment and retention, publicizing on-campus events, and event planning.

Dear parents

Welcome to the Tiger family! Each of you is a valued member of the ECU community whether you have been a part of the Tiger family for several generations or are joining us for the first time. Your participation in the educational journey of your child and in the life of campus is greatly valued.

We want to thank you for sharing your child with us. We, the staff, faculty, and administrators, are committed to providing opportunities for your child to learn, grow, and become professionals prepared for the challenges of their adult life.

Indeed, our mission, “To educate and empower students to understand and transform the world,” guides everything we do at ECU. We have watched many students dip their toes into exploring the world while others jump in with everything they have. We are prepared to support your student with either approach they take.

We encourage you to stay connected with your child while at ECU. We have a Parent & Family page on the ECU website that provides information on how to help your student with encouragement, resources, and support in their new journey. Of course, you are also welcome to attend events hosted by ECU, and those may be found on the campus calendar. We look forward to seeing you at many activities, and at your child’s commencement.

Again, welcome to the Tiger family.

Yours,
Jeffrey Gibson, PhD
