

East Central University Student Senate Eligibility

1. To be eligible for any office, including Class Representative, a student must have at the time of filing, and must maintain a grade point average of 2.5 per semester on a 4.0 scale at East Central University. Freshman Representatives shall be exempted from this rule.
 - a. Freshman Representative must have been admitted to the University on good standing and must maintain a 2.5 throughout the term of office.
 - b. Any senator not upholding his or her GPA requirement shall be expelled.
2. Class Representatives must meet the class qualifications by the beginning of the first full semester of their tenure in office.
3. At Large Representatives shall be defined in the following way:
 - a. Minority Student Representative-other than Caucasian as reported during the time of enrollment.
 - b. Commuter Student Representative-a person [who is] enrolled as a full time student and 'can' certify that he or she plans to attend East Central University for the full term of office of which he or she seeks...with a current address that is off campus; the candidate may not be a resident of campus housing.
 - c. Non-Traditional Student Representative-a student with a five (5) or more year's absence in formal education after high school or previous formal education enrollment.
 - d. Campus Housing Student Representative-a student who resides in an East Central University residence hall, Knight Hall, Tiger Commons, or Married Student Housing.
 - e. Varsity Athlete Student Representative-any student with an earned varsity athletic letter in any sport formally recognized by East Central University
 - f. Graduate Student Representative-any student with at least a 3.0 grade point average, enrolled in a minimum of nine (9) hours, and admitted into an East Central University graduate program
 - g. Student with Disabilities Representative-student registered as having a disability with Student Support Services
 - h. Veterans Student Representative-any student that is a military veteran and classified as such through ECU Office of Admissions and Records.